DETAILED ACTION

1. In previous Office action, claims 1-8, 10-22 and 24-26 were examined and rejected. Claims 9, 23, and 27-29 have been withdrawn from further consideration as being drawn to nonelected inventions.

Response to Amendment

2. According to the amendment filed on April 10, 2008, claims 3, 4, 12, 18, 19 and 24 have been canceled. Accordingly, claims 1, 2, 5-8, 10-11, 13-17, 20-22 and 25-26 are presented for examination.
3. Applicant's arguments filed on April 10, 2008 with respect to the rejection of claims 1, 2, 5-8, 10-11, 13-17, 20-22 and 25-26 under 35 USC § 102 and 103 have been fully considered but they are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
6. Claims 1, 2, 5-8, 10-11, 13-17, 20-22 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Foster et al. (US 6,500,182) in view of Jones et al (U.S. 5,843,050).
7. Foster discloses (Figs. 1 and 8) a medical retrieval device 10 is disclosed comprising an elongated cylindrical member 11 that includes a continuum of a material 40, preferably a metal such as stainless steel or nitinol, that forms both the resilient grasping members 13 of retrieval basket 54, snare 26, or grasper forceps 23, and the proximal portion 21 or shaft of the device. An external constraining device 14, such as an outer sheath. Forest also discloses the retrieval devices of the present invention can fit through the accessory channel 46 of a small endoscope, such as an ureteroscope 44 while still having a sufficient lumen size to accommodate an ancillary treatment device 25 such as a standard 200 micron laser fiber or lithotripsy wire and irrigation system (Abstract; col. 4, line 50 to col. 5, line 10; and col. 7, lines 5-25). Foster discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for the distal portion which comprises a spiral cut along a longitudinal axis of the cannula 11. However, Jones discloses (see Fig. 3) a microcatheter 10 having tubular element 30 wherein a distal portion of tubular 30 includes at least two sections with spiral cut wherein spiral cut of each section having different pitch to provide a high degree of flexibility to facilitate negotiation of small, tortuous vessels (see Abstract and col. 5, lines 1-40). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to incorporate the spiral cut, as disclosed by Jones, into the distal portion of the cannula of Foster so that it too would have the same advantage.

8. Referring to claims 2, 5, 6, 16, 17, 22, and 25-26, Foster as modified by Jones discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for specifically disclosing the dimensions that claimed by the applicant. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to design the spiral cut is taken about 60 to about 80 degrees from the longitudinal axis of the cannula and the width of the spiral cut is about 0.001 to about 0.002 inches wide, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233. Extrinsic evidence, Pinchuk (US 4,960,410) discloses spiral cut is taken about 25 to about 85 degrees from the longitudinal axis of the cannula (see col. 3, lines 58-60).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
